

Real News About Reel People

By Bide Dudley.

George Loans Tooker, through a recently made canvas, is able to announce that more than 5,000 churches in the United States and Canada are now showing motion pictures regularly to their congregations. In a communication to him the Rev. Leslie Willis Sprague of New York said:

"The church that is not equipped to show films is as incomplete as a church without an organ. I do not hesitate to predict that it is only a question of a little time until thousands of churches will use films as part of their regular Sunday services."

TO USE FEWER TITLES.

That the time is fast approaching when the number of titles in films will be cut at least one-half, is the opinion of Louis Cohn of the Loew Weber studios.

"Titles are necessary, of course," he says, "but the tendency nowadays is to get away from having too many. There is no denying that a title breaks the action of the story to a certain extent."

THE MYSTERY OF THE BLACK WHISKERS.

Synopsis—Hob Jackson, a father, finds his daughter, Dulcie, in the parlor and suspects the Count is there. Dulcie tells Hob to beat it and he slams the door. Trouble is near.

CHAPTER II.

Jackson decided to sic the dog on the Count. Opening the front door he called "Sport!" "Who's a sport?"

The Rev. Jabez Tidholm, who was passing, had angrily asked the question.

"I never meant you," he said. "The dog is your master! You been hearing about the Widow Smalls."

"Hi-ho!" came from a third party. Both men looked. The Count's black whiskers were festooned against the parlor window.

A tense moment ensued. (Don't fail to read Thursday's interesting instalment.)

ATTENTION, LADIES!

George Fitzmaurice, who is directing the filming of "Experience," says bobbed hair is not beautiful. He is looking for a girl to portray the role of "Beauty," and is turning down bobbed applicants by the score.

"The girl with short hair lacks the finishing touch that one demands in a beautiful face," says Mr. Fitzmaurice.

SHE WANTS DAHLIAS.

Contessane Talmadge, while shooting a few scenes on the Cunard liner Mauritania recently, told of her love for dahlias.

"Last fall," she said, "a lady gave me some dahlias and I asked her for some bulbs. She promised me some, but in the spring she said the bulbs had all been frozen. Later I found out she had given me dahlias that she had given me and had no bulbs at all. Oh, I wish I had some dahlias bulbs—oh, how I wish I had some dahlias bulbs!"

SHE TOOK A RISK.

Gladys Walton's life insurance has been cancelled by three companies on the ground that she violated her agreement when she entered a cage with some lions during the making of the film, "The Man Tamer." She finally managed to get other insurance, but the rates were raised.

SHUCKS, JUNE!

June Mathis, scenarioist, says they call it shortcake because it doesn't last long after being served.

IT SHO'DO!

Ole Ani Kober, our jesting correspondent, U. S. Mails us as follows: "I noticed in your columns that Christy Cabanne has just finished a picture called, 'What's a Wife Worth?' I have just read an item to the effect that he has to pay his former wife $200 a week alimony. Looks like the courts have answered the question, eh, wot?"

SOME NEGRO FILMS.

A series of motion pictures featuring colored players will be put out by the Mount Olympus Distributing Corporation, a new organization chartered in New York. The stars of the characters will be similar to those immortalized in story and song by Joel Chandler Harris, Stephen C. Foster and others.

STRAND TAKES THE CAKE.

A feature of the Strand's seventh anniversary celebration will be a huge cake which will be driven by the stars of the house. The cake, which will be driven by Managing Director Joseph L. Pilkett, will be eight and a half feet high and, according to Ha Ha Leonard, will contain just 27,000 stomachaches.
